Work and Pay Details

Position title: Hospitality Crew

Hourly wage: $9.50

Tips? No

Description of position:

As a part of the Hospitality Crew, you will either be placed into a KITCHEN JOB, or a HOUSEKEEPING JOB. Your job will be determined upon your arrival to Yellowstone, depending on where we need people the day you arrive.

Working in the KITCHEN jobs could include DISHWASHING, CAFETERIA SERVER (also DELI, FAST FOOD or EMPLOYEE DINING ROOM SERVERS), FOOD RUNNER, CASHIERING, or PANTRY WORKER.

DISHWASHERS will wash trays, pots and pans used in cooking and serving, unload the dishes from the bussers, scrape food in the trash, and load them into dish trays to be washed in a machine with scalding hot water.

Sometimes you will wash things by hand if they don't fit in the machine.

You will also help take out the garbage, mop and sweep the kitchen, and keep the entire kitchen clean – a team effort! You will clean coolers, kitchen tables, refrigerators and prep-stations. Dishwashers are almost always the last person to leave at night.

CAFETERIA, DELI, FAST FOOD or EMPLOYEE DINING ROOM (EDR) SERVER: You may work as a SERVER in one of our various quick dining restaurants. Serving guests, you will take and deliver food and beverage orders. You will also be expected to clear, clean and reset dining area tables, clean and restock service items, or clean dining area floors. Some restaurants also have Ice Cream, where you will scoop hard ice cream for cones or sundaes. This can put strain on your wrists and fingers.

In the Employee Dining Room (EDR), your customers are other employees. You may also make some of the food you are serving (sandwiches or eggs on the grill, frying French fries and such).

FOOD RUNNER - All dining areas also include FOOD RUNNERS – who bring fresh food (hot or cold) to the Cafeteria serving areas or to Buffet tables in Dining Rooms. This can be large pan of food or individual plates and bowls on a tray (sandwiches, salads, desserts).

CASHIER : As a CASHIER you'll use a cash register to ring up orders, take people's money and give them their change and a receipt. You might also have to wrap or bag their purchase. At the end of a shift, you'll have to count the money in your cash register and compare it with the sales data in the computer. Be careful with your money - although you probably won't get in trouble for occasionally being a few cents short, you could get fired if it happens too often.

PANTRY WORKER: You could end up working in the PANTRY, where you will do a lot of the preparation for the dishes that are served. This includes chopping vegetables, making salads, weighing and mixing ingredients, washing and preparing food, storing food, and more. PANTRY WORKERS report to the head chef or cook and may work earlier than most other cooks.

All positions may be required to help with BUSSING, where you help with cleaning tables, taking dirty plates, utensils and drink ware to the kitchen to be washed, and reset tables for the next service. You will be pushing and pulling a heavy cart while collecting dirty dishes.

If you are going to work as a HOUSEKEEPER, this is a busy and hardworking job! You will clean and maintain guest rooms and/or public hallway areas. Guest rooms may include: bedrooms, toilet/shower area, living area, and deck/porch. Job duties may include:

- Removing and collecting linens for laundering and transporting them to designated areas.
- Cleaning rugs, carpets, and upholstered furniture using vacuum cleaner.
- Dusting furniture, rooms and equipment.
- Emptying wastebaskets and cleaning them inside and out. Sorting trash and recyclables.
- Cleaning tiled floors with the use of brooms and mops.
- Using chemical-based products to clean tubs, sinks, countertops, mirrors, toilets, door panels and shower curtains.
- Replenishing trash bags, soaps, bathroom items, and other supplies.
- Transporting all trash and waste to disposal areas, as instructed.
