Required Qualifications	Participants must be friendly, a good team player, and able to follow instructions and take initiative. Participants must be willing to work in housekeeping.
Uniform Requirements	Please bring black formal slacks/pants, black shoes, and black socks. Uniform shirt will be provided by employer at no cost. No jeans or sweatpants allowed while working.

Housing	Housing is provided by the employer, which is $350 per month. This cost covers WiFi, Television, and all utilities. You will also need a $200 dollar deposit to move in ($100 of which is refundable, once inspection takes place and the living quarters are deemed satisfactory). The employer has proactively secured this housing because it is the only reasonably priced accommodation in the area. Due to these concerns, the employer has packaged together the job offer and housing option. The participant must live in the employee housing. Any participant that moves out of the employer-provided housing will lose his/her job and the housing deposit will be forfeited. The housing is a series of manufactured homes built specifically for J-1 participants and other seasonal workers. Each unit has five bedrooms and two bathrooms. There will be two people per bedroom. The trailers will be separated by gender. The trailer homes each have a refrigerator, stove, oven, washer and dryer. Water, trash and sewage will be included in rent. Participants can bike to work, or carpool with other employees for $2 roundtrip or $1 for one-way.
